BRINGING BACK THE BLACK ROBED REGIMENT

They answered the call. Will you?

British loyalist Peter Oliver called them the Black Regiment and the British blamed them for stirring up the colonists. They preached politics from their pulpits and some of them actually led the men of their congregations off to war. Who were they? The Patriot Preachers of 18th century America. Yet, most modern American pastors haven't even heard of them. In this presentation, Oklahoma pastor and State Representative, Dan Fisher, gives a brief history of these Patriot Preachers of the Revolution and shows how we need them to emerge today. Without an "awakening" in today's pulpit, Dan believes America will not survive. Thus, his clarion call is that it is time, past time, to Bring Back the Black Robed Regiment.
